WILSON WILL NOT CHANGE POLICY

Believes Situation in Mexico No More Serious Than For Months Past

DENIAL FROM GERMANY AS TO ANY DEMAND

Ambassador Wilson Now on Way to Washington—Due There July 28

WASHINGTON, July 17.—It was authoritatively stated at the White House this morning that the President doesn't intend to change his attitude regarding Mexico, as he doesn't believe the situation more acute than it has been since March. Senator Bacon, chairman of the senate foreign affairs committee, conferred with the President this morning.

It is expected that the President will outline his position at the regular conference with reporters this afternoon.

WILSON NOW ON WAY TO WASHINGTON

MEXICO CITY, July 17.—Suppressed excitement prevails here following the departure of American Ambassador Wilson for Washington. He is at Vera Cruz today, and is expected to reach Washington July 28. A statement issued from the embassy says the ambassador's trip is solely for the purpose of placing before the administration exact information on the existing situation in Mexico, and with no other object. Despite this the impression is prevailing here that Wilson is not likely to return in an official capacity.

Alleged Dynamite Plot

EAGLE PASS, Texas, July 17.—Details of an alleged plot to dynamite the American consulate at Piedras Negras were telegraphed to Washington by Consul Ellsworth. Ellsworth spent the night at the army post here. He refused to comment on the alleged attempt.

RAILROAD DEMANDS MAY COMPLICATE STRIKE SETTLEMENT

NEW YORK, July 17.—Possible complications in the proposed arbitration of the dispute between the eastern railroads and their conductors and trainmen developed last night when the conference committee of managers submitted a list of demands which they insisted must be arbitrated together with the men's demands for increased wages. The men announced they would issue a reply tomorrow.

Fears were expressed that this move by the railroads might delay or even prevent arbitration of the dispute under the Newlands bill passed by congress and signed by President Wilson yesterday. The demands of the roads, as listed in their statement, include a reduction in pay of 20 per cent of all brakemen on "extra extra crews" trains in Texas, where the extra crew bill now is a state law. The roads further ask that all monthly guarantees to trainmen be abolished, and that in no case shall double compensation be paid.

The railroads insist also that the rates fixed and awards made by the new arbitration board to be appointed shall supersede all rates and rules now in effect.

Representatives of the 80,000 trainmen and conductors who voted to strike unless the roads conceded their demands, but who, through their leaders, agreed with the roads' representatives to ask for arbitration under the new federal law, declined to have anything to say on the new development as concretely brought to the front by the roads.

EXPECTING TO SEE GOOD ORANGE CROP

Redlands Facts: According to C. Y. Runge, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, the railroads are keeping close watch on the orange crop for next year, and the prospects are very encouraging. He expects to see a crop of 75 per cent of the average.

Mr. Runge reports that the cantaloupe season at Brawley practically closed Saturday night, 3600 cars having been shipped. Watermelons and grapes are being shipped now, and it is expected that about 4000 cars will be shipped from the valley during the season.

Strictly home made bread and pastry. Delivered. Call Murphy, 4923.

Hot in Middle West; 112 at Council Bluffs

OMAHA, July 17.—A shift of the wind today relieved the most severe heat in many years. There have been eleven deaths here since Sunday. There were nine yesterday and six prostrations, of which two will probably be fatal.

At noon the cooling breezes ceased and the heat became more oppressive. In Council Bluffs, opposite Omaha, the mercury registered 112 in the shade.

LANSING, Mich., July 17.—The evils of the present methods of legal procedure such as delays and long drawn out trials, and how best to remedy the evils, was the important subject of the discussion at the annual meeting of the Michigan State Bar Association which opened here today. Senators McCumber of North Dakota, and Robinson of Arkansas, were among those scheduled to deliver addresses today. The sessions close this evening.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Sixty-five representatives of the employees of the Erie railroad conferred today regarding the threatened strike to enforce the wage increase demands of the trainmen and conductors which the company denied. BEGIN FILL OF MULHALL TELLS APPROACHES AT ONCE SECRETS OF CAMPAIGN

Camp Established on West Fifth First Move Toward Actual Road Work Says Taft Managers and Manufacturers' Association Were Working Together

THREE MONTHS TO COMPLETE THE JOB

Highway Commissioners Going to Look Over Santa Ana Canyon Road Survey

The first of next week some fifteen or twenty teamsters will "cluck" to some fifteen or twenty teams, and the first actual work of building $1,270,000 worth of good roads in Orange county will have been begun.

This first work will be in building approaches to the new cement bridge on West fifth street, which is a part of the contract let to C. E. Chamberlain for building five and a quarter miles of good roads on a route from the west city limits of Santa Ana along West Fifth street to its end, then south to First street and then west on First street to the north end of the road that leads straight south to Huntington Beach.

Chamberlain, who lives at Anaheim, was here today and established a camp for his men. This camp is on West Fifth street across the street from Blankenbecker's store. To commence with Chamberlain will work twelve or fifteen teams owned by him, and he has hired several other teams and teamsters from nearby ranches. Teams will be used on the job for grading and similar work. Chamberlain is considering the advisability of hauling his material, such as cement, rock and gravel, in auto trucks. That is a matter he has not yet decided. Should he conclude to use teams at times he will have as high as 100 teams at work. The contractor believes that he can complete this section of good road within three months. Some of the stakes were set for the job yesterday by Carl Mansur, a surveyor of the County Highway Commission.

To View Survey
Tomorrow the County Highway Commission, with Engineer Halladay, is going to make a trip up the Santa Ana canyon to the county line to view the survey that has been made of the road by the engineering department. It is not proposed to pave the Santa Ana canyon road. It is proposed to reduce the grades and cut the points wherever possible, and make the road safer and easier for travel. This road is the main traveled road between the interior counties and Orange county points.

AGED WOMAN HAS DESPERATE BATTLE

SANTA MONICA, July 17.—Attacked by a giant Negro while alone on her ranch thirty miles up the coast, Mrs. E. L. Shipley, aged 60, fought desperately. Falling over a lighted stove she was frightfully burned. Her screams finally frightened her assailant away. Despite her burns the woman saddled a horse and rode three miles to a neighbor who brought her to her daughter's home here. The Negro escaped, leaving no trace. The woman is recovering.

BE NO REDUCTION IN THE IRVINE FIGURES RAISE OF $500,000

Board of Equalization Goes Over Big Ranch and Considers Making a Raise on Portion of it

There will be no reduction in the assessment of the Irvine Co. property in this county. Yesterday the board of equalization went over a large portion of the ranch, and today statements were made by the board to the effect that there would be no revision downward on any of the ranch's property. Instead of a reduction the board raised the assessment about $500,000. The raise was made on 44,800 acres of foothill lands.

When the Irvine Co. asked for a reduction on the main valley, Assessor Sleeper recommended that the reduction be denied and that the Laguna and Santiago hills be raised. The raise was ordered this afternoon over Attorney Forgy's objections.

Before the raise the total ranch assessment was $3,963,020.

Yesterday the five supervisors accompanied by County Assessor Sleeper and William Mitchell, assistant superintendent of the Irvine ranch, and H. J. Forgy, attorney for the ranch, made a trip over a large portion of the ranch. They went to the old ranch house at the head of the bay, then to the ranch-line at El Toro, then back through the San Joaquin Fruit Co. property and by the ranch house, then up the Santiago canyon to the ranch line near the Modjeska Country Club.

During the vacation the big plant has been overhauled, renovated, repaired and improved. This work was completed last week and everything about the place put in perfect condition. Many thousands of dollars were spent since the close of the last campaign in repairs, in the installation of new machinery, and in making improvements, and the factory begins this campaign in better condition than it has been since its establishment.

BULGARIA TO BE CRUSHED AS POWER

Allies Said to Have Combined to Remove Her as Balkan Factor

REPORTED HELPLESS TO PROSECUTE WAR

King Ferdinand Said to Have Agreed to Conference for Peace Terms

LONDON, July 17.—An alignment of the forces of Greece, Serbia and Roumania to crush Bulgaria in an effort to forever remove her as a Balkan factor, is announced today in Salonika dispatches. Plans for the consolidated armies to march on Sofia and force peace terms were perfected at the conference, the dispatches state.

Diplomats are greatly concerned by the reports. It is generally believed the powers will not permit the allies to enter Sofia.

Belgrade dispatches report another Bulgarian reverse. They claim the Serbs yesterday stormed Jullkamik, routing the right wing of the Bulgarian army. The casualties are reported as appalling. Sofia reports that the Turkish troops are advancing in three columns, and are already reported twenty miles beyond the boundary fixed in the London treaty. Their objective point is believed to be Adrianople.

Roumanian troops under the personal command of the king, continue their advance unopposed. The Bulgars, it is reported, sank two torpedo boats in the Danube to prevent their capture by Roumania.

BULGARIA HELPLESS TO PROSECUTE WAR

SOFIA, July 17.—Unable to form a new cabinet, M. Malinoff, the new premier, today declared the situation in Bulgaria so far as the war is concerned, is hopeless unless the powers intervene. King Ferdinand is reported to have wired the king of Roumania that he is ready to negotiate for peace, but failed to discuss terms.

SUMMER SCHOOL FOR SLOW YOUNGSTERS

LYNN, Mass., July 17.—Despairing parents had a great burden lifted from their shoulders today and a number of youngsters were plunged into gloom when the school department assumed much of the responsibility of the kids and opened special classes for pupils who do not learn readily and for those who are prone to prank more and study less during the winter school term. Twelve classes with as many teachers were opened today.

Charcoal From Cobs

Charcoal is a health promoter for the fowls. If you will put some ears of corn in a hot oven and let them burn quite black and feed when the grain gets cold enough you will perhaps be astonished to see how greedy the poultry will be of the charred corn. Give such a feed every two weeks.

"Do you think a man whose life has been threatened should be permitted to carry a gun?" "No. It would spoil the appearance of the game to see the impudent standing around with a six shooter in his pocket."—Washington Star.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

SAYS SALOON
MEN LIQUOR
TO A YOUTH

Deputy District Attorney Koepsel Swears to Complaints Against Them

W. F. Rau, saloonman at Balboa, has been arrested on a charge of selling liquor to a minor, Frank Basham, and a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Max Reichenbach, a saloonman of Newport Beach, on the same kind of a charge, the sale alleged also having been made to young Basham. Rau has pleaded not guilty and his trial is set for August 7. He gave $200 bail.

Deputy District Attorney Koepsel has had the action against the two men in contemplation for some time. The sales to the youth, Frank Basham, are alleged to have occurred on May 26. The liquor that was sold is in the possession of the district attorney's office. Complaints had been made that some of the liquor dealers at Newport Beach were not at all particular about following the law prohibiting the sale of liquor to minors, and it was reported to the prosecutor's office that a number of boys from Santa Ana were in the habit of getting liquor at the beach town. Rau and Reichenbach are charged, each with a specific sale. Basham is under 18 years of age.

AT THE COURTHOUSE

AGED WOMAN
CANNOT CARE FOR ESTATE

She Was Found Lying Unconscious and With Arm Broken in Yard

Today W. P. Ong told the story of an aged woman's helplessness and misfortune. The story was told in a petition filed by him in the office of the county clerk. Ong asks that he be appointed guardian of the state of Anna Titus of Yorba Linda, a woman 91 years of age. W. C. Ong is attorney for the petitioner.

Ong declares that Mrs. Titus is unable to care for her business and cannot look after her ranch at Yorba Linda. On July 10 she was found lying unconscious in her back yard, where she had fallen and had broken her arm. She was taken into the house and has been cared for by a physician, who declares that she is incompetent to look after property interests. Ong petitions as her friend. He states that her only relative here is a grandson, who Ong says is not competent to have charge of the property.

SAYS JAP ORCHARD
BOSS THREATENED TO USE DYNAMITE

Officers Searched Him But Found None of the Explosive in His Clothing

There was great excitement among forty or fifty Japanese orange pickers at Placentia this morning. The orchard boss, whose name is Y. Nakatsui, was on a rampage, and he told them he was going to blow the whole bunch up with dynamite. So far as Deputy Sheriff Law and Dean could find Nakatsui had no dynamite, but he had convinced the rest of his countrymen that he was a walking powder magazine. All that was necessary to start something was to tell him. Beyond question Nakatsui had the rest of the Japs buffaloed. They could not imagine themselves being buffaloed by an ordinary sane man, so they reported to the sheriff's office that their boss was crazy, clean crazy.

The Jap camp is located near the Mutual Orange Growers' Association packing-house. Yakatsui had a row with the cook. Perhaps the cook's cooking was enough to drive a man crazy. At least that is the way it seemed to effect Nakatsui.

Nobody but a Japanese interpreter could make out the details of the story of what followed. Under Sheriff Law is a kingpin on Spanish, but he is not up on the ins and outs of the little brown man's lingo. From what could be learned from those who did use English, Law and Dean gathered that Nakatsui had developed into a real bad dynamo. They told the officers he was crazy as they make 'em. They were warned to be mighty careful when they tackled him for he might shy a piece of dynamite at their teeth and cause them unnecessary dental expenses.

Law and Dean found the man in charge of a gang of orange-pickers, and put him under arrest. They searched him. There was not a piece of dynamite to be found on him or anywhere around him. Nakatsui was brought to jail pending an investigation. The rest of the Japs were all-fired glad to see him taken away. Perhaps they thought he had swallowed the stuff and if he was going to blow up they wanted the catastrophe to occur far from their vicinity.

Alaska will some day provide farmers in lower altitudes with grain seeds superior to what they grow at home.

EVILS OF EYE STRAIN.

Some of Them Are Headaches, Dizziness and Indigestion.

When a child begins to screw up its eyes to elevate and depress its eyebrows, to wrinkle its forehead, to blink, to push forward its head when looking at things, then suspect eye strain. Among the many troubles caused by eye strain are headaches, dizziness, indigestion and so called bilious attacks.

Eye strain is really a weariness of the many nerves that supply the small muscles of the eyes. If there be any abnormal optical conditions, such as errors of refraction, found in myopia, or shortsightedness and hyperopia, or long sightedness, imperfect balance of the ocular muscles and astigmatism or asymmetrical curvature of the cornea, these muscles try their best to correct the trouble, but soon tire of the effort and give it up, when the blurred images of irregular diffusion are left to irritate the retina. As one-fourth of all the cranial nerves are devoted to the eyes one can scarcely wonder that headaches are the result of eye strain. That backwardness in school work is often due to eye strain is well known to up to date educators.

It is claimed by some medical men that the majority of children who are rated as mentally defective are not suffering from weakness of intellect, but from defective sight, that can be cured by glasses.—New York World.

THE PLAIN OF MARATHON.

Modern Aspect of the Famous Old Greek Battlefield.

Greece, though sparsely inhabited, is in the main a very cheerful looking country. The loneliness of much of it is not depressing, the bareness of much of it is not sad. I began to understand this on the day when I went to the plain of Marathon, which fortunately lies away from railroads. One must go there by carriage or motor or on horseback. The road is bad both for beasts and machinery, but it passes through country which is typical of Greece and through which it would be foolish to go in haste.

Go quietly to Marathon, spend two hours there, or more, and when you return in the evening to Athens you will have tasted a new joy. You will have lived for a little while in an exquisite pastoral—a pastoral through which, it is true, no pipes of Pan have ducted to you; I heard little music in Greece—but which has been full of that lightness, brightness, simplicity and delicacy peculiar to Greece. The soil of the land is light, and, I believe, though Hellenes have told me that in this I am wrong, that the heart of the people is light. Certainly the heart of one traveler was as he made his way to Marathon along a white road thickly powdered with dust.—Robert Hichens in Century Magazine.

A Fiery Speech.

William O'Brien in his "Recollections" gives this picture of Timothy Healy's first appearance in parliament: "A quarter of an hour after he took his seat as member for Wexford he started up to make his maiden speech—tiny of frame, sardonic of visage, his hands in his breeches pockets, as coolly insolent as a Phidian goblin, as entirely detestable as a small Diogenes, peering over the rims of his phenez as from his tub, through tidious eyes over his contemptible audience—and horrified the house of commons with the following exordium: 'Mr. Speaker, if the noble marquis (Harrington) thinks he is going to bully us with his high and mighty Cavendish ways, all I can tell him is he will find himself knocked into a cocked hat in a jiffy, and we will have to put him to the necessity of wiping the blood of all the Cavendishes from his noble nose a good many times before he disposes of us.'"

Ways of the Japanese.

The thick straw mats are the only furniture needed in a Japanese house. They are three by six feet in size and take the place of tables, beds and chairs. The house is never heated. In winter the people put on thick, wadded kimono, sit on their feet and hold their hands over a little charcoal brazier. For recreation they go out to the family burying ground to worship the spirits of their ancestors or to a shrine to see the cherry blossoms. If earth quakes, which are as common there as thunderstorms here, shake down the little houses or they are swept away by the fires that a proverb says sweep Tokyo every seven years the little brown folks only smile and murmur "Shikata ga nai" (There is no help for it).—New York Sun.

They Didn't Like Razors.

Said Daniel Webster: "—the razor! It has taught me to curse. It has cost me more time and more trouble than all my speeches."

Rufus Choate, the lawyer, called the razor an instrument invented by Lucifer to fill up hell with harrisors.

Edward Everett never used profane language, but before shaving he would invariably give vent to all sorts of French barbarisms.

The Retort.

Here is a retort which a "dull student" once made: Professor—You seem to be very dull. When Alexander the Great was your age he had already conquered the world. Student—Well, you see, he had Aristotle for a teacher.—Chambers' Journal.

Missed Vocation.

Client—Didn't you make a mistake in going into law instead of the army? Lawyer—Why? Client—By the way you charge there would be little left of the enemy.—London Tit-Bits.

"Can't I get my pants pressed while you cut my hair?"

"All right. Boy, shine my shoes at the same time and hand me that newspaper. By the way, get the restaurant next door to send in a couple of sandwiches, and I can be eating my lunch."

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

SAYS SALOON MEN LIQUOR TO A YOUTH

Deputy District Attorney Koep- sel Swears to Complaints Against Them

W. F. Rau, saloonman at Balboa, has been arrested on a charge of selling liquor to a minor, Frank Basham, and a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Max Reichenbach, a saloonman of Newport Beach, on the same kind of a charge, the sale alleged also having been made to young Basham. Rau has pleaded not guilty and his trial is set for August 7. He gave $200 bail.

Deputy District Attorney Koep- sel has had the action against the two men in contemplation for some time. The sales to the youth, Frank Basham, are alleged to have occurred on May 26. The liquor that was sold is in the possession of the district attorney's office. Complaints had been made that some of the liquor dealers at New- port Beach were not at all particular about following the law prohibiting the sale of liquor to minors, and it was reported to the prosecutor's office that a number of boys from Santa Ana were in the habit of getting liquor at the beach town. Rau and Reichen- bach are charged, each with a specific sale. Basham is under 18 years of age.

Warrant is Out

Today a complaint was sworn to by Jose Estrada of Talbert charging Frank Munoz with contributing to the delinquency of Amelia Estrada, a minor.

AGED WOMAN CANNOT CARE FOR ESTATE

She Was Found Lying Uncon- scious and With Arm Brok- en in Yard

Today W. P. Ong told the story of an aged woman's helplessness and misfortune. The story was told in a petition filed by him in the office of the county clerk. Ong asks that he be appointed guardian of the estate of Ann Titus of Yorba Linda, a woman 91 years of age. W. C. Ong is attorney for the petitioner.

Ong declares that Mrs. Titus is unable to care for her business and cannot look after her ranch at Yorba Linda. On July 19 she was found lying unconscious in her backyard, where she had fallen and had broken her arm. She was taken into the house and has been cared for by a physician, who declares that she is incompetent to look after property interests. Ong petitions as her friend. He states that her only relative here is a grandson, who Ong says is not competent to have charge of the property.

Asks for Pipeline

A. G. Blom has asked the super- visors for a permit to lay a pipeline across a county road in the Garden Grove district.

Case is Settled

The county clerk today got notice of dismissal in the action of W. D. Dunbar against Annie R. Smith of Garden Grove. This case was tried and judgment was entered. In accord- ance with it the plaintiff has taken possession of a butcher-shop con- cerned in the trade that brought about the suit, and Mrs. Smith has regained possession of her ranch, for which she contended in the suit.

Suit Over Spuds

B. J. Hayes of Garden Grove with H. C. Head as attorney has brought suit against Fred F. Lambourn for $295.87. The complaint alleges that Lambourn agreed to pay $1.25 a sack for Hayes' potatoes. Hayes shipped the spuds from Garden Grove, but as yet has received no pay.

SAYS JAP ORCHARD BOSS THREATENED TO USE DYNAMITE

Officers Searched Him But Found None of the Explosive in His Clothing

There was great excitement among forty or fifty Japanese orange pickers at Placentia this morning. The or- chard boss, whose name is Y. Nakat- sui, was on a rampage, and he told them he was going to blow the whole bunch up with dynamite. So far as Deputy Sheriff's Law and Dean could find Nakatsui had no dynamite, but he had convinced the rest of his com- pany that he was a walking powder magazine. All that was necessary to start something was to let him. Be- yond question Yakatsui had the rest of the Japs buffaloed. They could not imagine themselves being buffaloed by an ordinary sane man, so they re- ported to the sheriff's office that their boss was crazy, clean crazy.

The Jap camp is located near the Mutual Orange Growers' Association packing-house. Yakatsui had a row with the cook. Perhaps the cook's cooking was enough to drive a man crazy. At least that is what it seemed to effect Nakatsui.

Nobody but a Japanese interpreter could make out the details of the story of what followed. Under Sher- iff Law is a kingpin on Spanish but he is not up on the ins and outs of the little brown man's lingo. From what could be learned from those who did use English, Law and Dean gathered that Nakatsui had developed in- to a real bad dynamo. They told the officers he was crazy as they make 'em. They were warned to be mighty careful when they tackled him for he might shy a piece of dynamite at their teeth and cause them unnecessary dental expenses.

Law and Dean found the man in charge of a gang of orange-pickers, and put him under arrest. They searched him. There was not a piece of dynamite to be found on him, or anywhere around him. Nakatsui was brought to jail pending an investiga- tion. The rest of the Japs were all fired glad to see him taken away. Per- haps they thought he had swallowed the stuff and if he was going to blow up they wanted the catastrophe to oc- cur far from their vicinity.

EVILS OF EYE STRAIN.

Some of Them Are Headaches, Dizzi- ness and Indigestion.

When a child begins to screw up its eyes to elevate and depress its eye- brows, to wrinkle its forehead, to blink, to push forward its head when looking at things, then suspect eye strain. Among the many troubles caused by eye strain are headaches, dizziness, indigestion and so called bil- ious attacks.

Eye strain is really a weariness of the many nerves that supply the small muscles of the eyes. If there be any abnormal optical conditions, such as errors of refraction, found in myopia, or shortsightedness and hyperopia, or long sightedness, imperfect balance of the ocular muscles and astigmatism or asymmetrical curvature of the cornea, these muscles try their best to correct the trouble, but soon tire of the effort and give it up, when the blurred im- ages of irregular diffusion are left to irritate the retina. As one-fourth of all the cranial nerves are devoted to the eyes one can scarcely wonder that headaches are the result of eye strain. That backwardness in school work is often due to eye strain is well known to up to date educators.

It is claimed by some medical men that the majority of children who are rated as mentally defective are not suffering from weakness of intellect, but from defective sight, that can be cured by glasses.—New York World.

THE PLAIN OF MARATHON.

Modern Aspect of the Famous Old Greek Battlefield.

Greece, though sparsely inhabited, is in the main a very cheerful looking country. The loneliness of much of it is not depressing, the bareness of much of it is not sad. I began to understand this on the day when I went to the plain of Marathon, which fortunately lies away from railroads. One must go there by carriage or motor or on horseback. The road is bad both for beasts and machinery, but it passes through country which is typical of Greece and through which it would be foolish to go in haste.

Go quietly to Marathon, spend two hours there, or more, and when you re- turn in the evening to Athens you will have tasted a new joy. You will have lived for a little while in an exquisite pastoral—a pastoral through which, it is true, no pipes of Pan have fluted to you; I heard little music in Greece—but which has been full of that light- ness, brightness, simplicity and deli- cacy peculiar to Greece. The soil of the land is light, and I believe, though Hellenes have told me that in this I am wrong, that the heart of the people is light. Certainly the heart of one traveler was as he made his way to Marathon along a white road thick- ly powdered with dust.—Robert Rich- ens in Century Magazine.

A Fiery Speech.

William O'Brien in his "Recollections" gives this picture of Timothy Healy's first appearance in parliament: "A quarter of an hour after he took his seat as member for Wexford he started up to make his maiden speech—tiny of frame, garb of vision, his hands in his breeches pockets, as cool- ly insolent as a Parisian gamin, as en- tirely detestable as a small Diogenes, peering over the rim of his phrygian cap from his tub, through billows eyes over his contemptible audience—and horrified the house of commons with the following exordium: 'Mr. Speaker, if the noble marquis (Hartington) thinks he is going to bully us with his high and mighty Cavendish ways, all I can tell him is he will find himself knocked into a cocked hat in a jiffy, and we will have to put him to the necessity of wiping the blood of all the Cavendishes from his noble nose a good many times before he disposes of us.'"

Ways of the Japanese.

The thick straw mats are the only furniture needed in a Japanese house. They are three by six feet in size and take the place of tables, beds and chairs. The house is never heated. In winter the people put on thick, wadded kimonos, sit on their feet and hold their hands over a little charcoal brazier. For recreation they go out to the family burying ground to worship the spirits of their ancestors or to a shrine to see the cherry blossoms. If earth- quakes, which are as common there as thunderstorms here, shake down the little houses or they are swept away by the fires that a proverb says sweep Tokyo every seven years the little brown folks only smile and murmur "Shikata ga nai" (There is no help for it).—New York Sun.

They Didn't Like Razors.

Said Daniel Webster: "The razor! It has taught me to curse. It has cost me more time and more trouble than all my speeches."

Rufus Chouteau, the lawyer, called the razor an instrument invented by Lucifer to fill up hell with barristers.

Edward Everett never used profane language, but before shaving he would invariably give vent to all sorts of French barbarisms.

The Retort.

Here is a retort which a "dull stu- dent" once made: Professor—You seem to be very dull. When Alexander the Great was your age he had already conquered the world. Student—Well, you see, he had Aristotle for a teacher.—Chambers' Journal.

Missed Vocation.

Client—Didn't you make a mistake in going into law instead of the army? Lawyer—Why? Client—By the way you charge there would be little left of the enemy.—London Tit-Bits.

"Can't I get my pants pressed while you cut my hair?"

"All right. Boy, shine my shoes at the same time and hand me that newspaper, by the way, get the res- taurant next door to send in a couple of sandwiches, and I can be eating my lunch."

Rid Your Children of Worms

You can change fretful, ill-tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters, by ridding them of worms. Tossing, roll- ing, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intense thirst, pains in the stomach and bowels, fever- ishness and bad breath are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, expels the worms, restores the bowels, restores your children to health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brislin, of Miami, Ill., says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it." Guar- anteed. All druggists, or by mail, Price 25 cents. JOHNSON FOR RE-ELECTION

It is pretty generally the opinion of the Progressive press of California that Governor Johnson should succeed himself. Many papers, including the Register, have so expressed themselves. Hitherto the tone of all utterances on this subject has been one of deference to the Governor's judgment and wishes. But now comes the Oakland Enquirer, of which G. B. Daniels is editor, declaring emphatically for Hiram W. Johnson for re-election as Governor in 1914. It is practically a call upon the Governor to stand for the re-election and a call upon his friends to rally to his support. In the usual course of things, political declarations would not be looked for until after the first of the year, but Editor Daniels, evidently moved by the attacks the special interests are making, deems it important to begin the campaign at once.

Among other things, the Enquirer says:

"Hiram W. Johnson should succeed himself as governor of California."

"Moreover the next Progressive Governor should be announced at this time. No longer should the eager question, which is now upon the lips of every true Progressive and upon the lips of every true friend of this state, remain unanswered. The hour is come when formative sentiment should be crystallized and the convictions of Progressives united. It is time to begin the formation of an invincible army of all who are willing to enlist for social and industrial justice. Let this be not put off another day. Victory awaits such action."

"California Progressives suffer no paucity of fit gubernatorial timber, to be sure. There are many eligibles, but there is one supremely fit."

"Hiram Johnson entered the gubernatorial fight in this state reluctantly, because it meant to him the sacrifice of a lucrative law practice, which he could ill afford to give up. He made his triumphant campaign solely and ringly upon the simple proposition that the Southern Pacific should be thrown out of the political control of the state. His victory was as overwhelming as his campaign was brilliant and fearless."

"Hiram Johnson has made good. Not all of the reforms which he undertook have yet been accomplished, and for that reason his able helpmanship is needed for another term. In all large measures he has delivered the goods. Firstly, he has completely thrown the railroad government out of every semblance of state control. He has broken up the conditions of ring politicians throughout the state so effectually as to render their organization not only a shame and a reproach but an innocuous agency for harm."

"By his approval of wise legislation Hiram Johnson has endeared himself to the masses in California. By the inauguration of the initiative, referendum and recall, the state has assumed a foremost place in the nation. Through the State Railroad Commission every man has been not only presently but for all time benefited. Through the approval of laws for the protection of workmen, the conservation of water power, the upbuilding of schools and the University, the exclusion of Japanese land-ownership, and many other beneficent measures, he has proven himself to be wise enough to understand the people's needs and honest and courageous enough to secure the enactment of remedial legislation to meet those needs."

CONFESSED

The San Diego Union, conceding the domination of the Progressive party in California, warns its readers that they are not to assume that similar conditions exist in the East. According to the Union, what is now the Progressive party in California had its origin in a real service to the state in undoing the real abuses and in the real support of a large part of the people of California in what the Union thinks are freak legislative measures. Elsewhere, according to the Union, the Progressive party was a pure device of Colonel Roosevelt to make jobs for a few of his friends. The success of the party in California, then, where it has a real basis for existence, is not to be taken as a criterion of its continued existence elsewhere. This is, at least, the Union's argument.

As to the conditions in the East, it is not necessary to dispute the Union, since our concern is with conditions in California. Parenthetically, however, it may be mentioned that at the present time the Progressive party in the East is showing more political activity than both of the other parties combined, and that precisely the measures which the Union concedes give real strength to the Progressive party in California are the measures which the Progressive party everywhere else is promoting and where possible bringing to actual enactment, even when it has to act through legislatures and congresses of other parties. The more interesting feature, however, is not the Union's allegations in regard to the East, but its concession in regard to California. If so outright a stand-pat paper as the San Diego Union concedes the real dominance of the Progressive party in California, and adds that a part of that dominance is due to what even the Union concedes to have been a real service and the remainder is due to what the majority of the people of California regard as a real service, then the case may be taken as confessed.—Fresno Republican.

CONSCIENCE MONEY

Have the American people suddenly become more or less conscientious? How account for the drop of the government conscience fund to $2814? These figures for the year ending June 30 are the lowest voluntary contributions for twelve years.

A plausible explanation is that this fund has come largely from travelers who fled at the custom house about dutiable goods. Recent prosecutions no doubt convinced them the game is not worth playing.

Conscience must be firmly handled to be a successful sinner. If you give a child candy between meals once or twice, soon he demands a daily allowance. If conscience is dealt with firmly and as a matter of principle, it soon comes to know its place. But if handled in a temporizing fashion, it becomes very unruly, and pokes its nose into everything.

Many successful Americans have felt, when it came to a matter of buying legislatures or city councils, that this was a realm in which questions of conscience could not enter. The mere fact that it was "business," placed it outside questions of morality or immorality.

Government conscience funds come from unsuccessful sinners. They wanted to play the game, but didn't quite dare to. They temporized with conscience. They would pass the winking officer with some plausible excuse. The law was mean, or the goods sold at auction wouldn't bring the price. Given an inch, conscience took an ell, and finally forced restitution.

The fall of the conscience fund, therefore does not seem to have much significance. Let no shurs be cast at uneasy souls that returned ill-gotten savings. The act is highly creditable. While fear is called a low down motive, the Good Book says the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. Would that more people entertained it!

Mint Jelly

Two bunches of mint, simmered in one pint of water for one-half hour; one cup sugar, one and one-half tablespoons of granulated gelatin, softened in one-half cup of water; juice of two lemons.

When the gelatin has softened, pour the water from the cooked mint over the softened gelatin, then add the sugar and lemon juice. A delicate green color may be obtained by the use of a little vegetable color paste.

Strain and chill; cut in squares and serve with lamb in the place of mint sauce. It may be used as a garnish for the lamb.

Owed Good Dinner to Fish

The valuable contents of a pike recently furnished the means for a festive supper to more than four hundred poor persons at Fuentikichen, near Budapest, Hungary. The fish, a fourteen-pounder, was purchased in the fish market of Josef Abazoff, the manager of the municipal charity kitchen, and in its stomach was found a leather purse, containing gold, silver, and nickel coins. The mayor directed that part of the money should be expended on a meal to the poor, and a generous supper was served in which the voracious but luck-bringing fish formed the leading course.

Beef and Onion Pie

Take 1½ pounds lean beef, about the size of walnuts, stew gently in a small amount of water till tender, season to taste with salt and pepper, line the sides of a good-sized pudding dish with plain pastry, but fill it with sliced onions, put meat on top, draining it free from gravy; cover with buttered paper and bake in a moderate oven 1½ hours. When done beat the gravy that was drained from meat, pour it over the fire and serve at once.

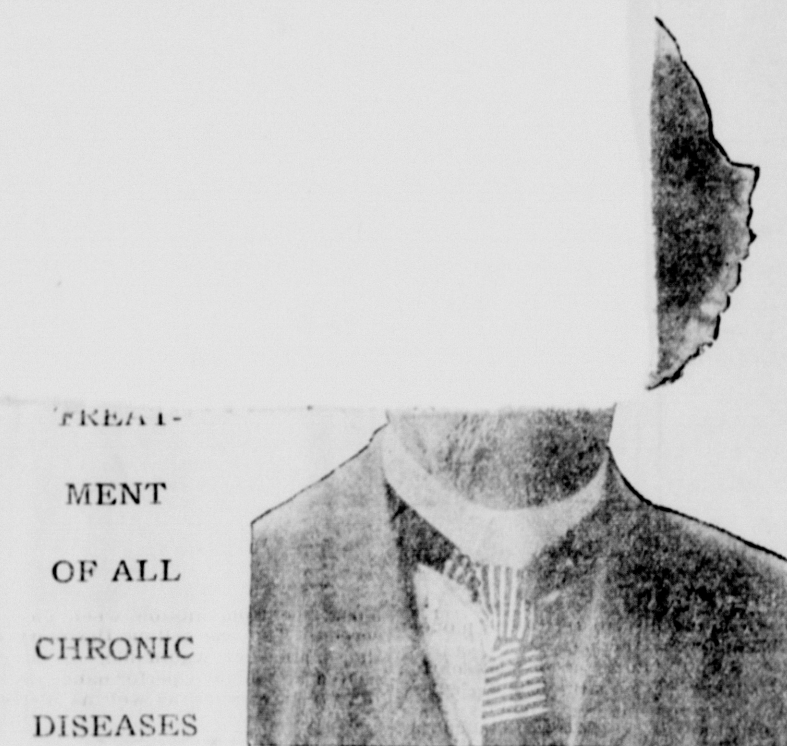

Septicemia, Not Tuberculosis

Tuberculosis germs, like all other germs, are not infectious until their habitat becomes putrid from oxygen starvation, and the disease they then can transmit is the one known to the profession as septic infection or septicemia, and not tuberculosis. Cattle nor man can be on foot when septicemic fever is once developed, and cattle must be in this state before their meat can be said to be infectious, and then the infection is not of a tuberculous character, but strictly of a putrescent character.—Stuffed Club.

Cheese Salad

Rub the yolk of a hard-boiled egg smooth with a tablespoonful of olive oil, then add a teaspoonful of salt, one of cayenne, one of sugar and one of made mustard, rubbing each in separately before another is added. Then stir in half a pound of well grated cheese. The cheese here used should be as old as possible without being "high." After all these ingredients are well worked together add a tablespoonful of onion vinegar and serve with shredded lettuce or other green salad.

Dr. Edwin Raymond, the Noted German Specialist, Famous for His Cures, Will Visit Santa Ana Again On FRIDAY, JULY 18TH, 1913

DR. EDWIN WM. RAYMOND

Sick people will rejoice in knowing that Dr. Edwin Raymond, that successful specialist in chronic diseases, will visit Santa Ana. His practice has grown so large in this section and he has done so much good in promptly relieving the suffering of the poor, sick and afflicted that he has decided to make regular monthly visits to the Hotel Alhertion, in order to consult with any new people who wish to get his expert opinion regarding their case and to visit with his patients now under treatment.

Few, there are, who are not now thoroughly familiar with the wonderful results he has accomplished in the past year and a half in Los Angeles. His reputation preceded him from the large cities of the East and South, where he successfully put through the most remarkable campaign against sickness and disease ever chronicled in the respective sections which he visited. Dr. Raymond is known from coast to coast as the "TELEVIDA MAN." The method of treatment which he formulated and designated under that title "televida" which means "to send life," became instantly famous when it accomplished in a few weeks' time what drugs and knife surgery had failed to do in a number of years. I refer to the case of Mrs. J. E. Holland of Memphis, Tenn., the young woman who had been a hopeless cripple in a wheel chair for two years following the terrible calamity when her back was broken during the destruction of her home in a cyclone.

This and a number of other cures which he has effected border upon the miraculous. Hundreds of testimonials have been printed in the newspapers.

SAVED FROM A SURGICAL OPERATION

Mr. A. C. McShane, a prominent citizen of Redlands, Cal., living at 127 Fifth Ave., owes his life today to the timely attention of Dr. Raymond.

He was suffering terribly with Gallstone trouble. Nothing afforded him relief. Doctors advised him that he must be operated upon to save his life. He dreaded the surgeons' ghastly knife more than his ailment. Then he heard of Dr. Raymond and called to consult with him. He was CURED in a FEW DAYS' TIME, without pain, WITHOUT THE KNIFE and without one moment's loss of time from business.

His joy knew no bounds and he is anxious that his many friends shall know that he is now a strong, healthy man as a result of Dr. Raymond's treatment. This fact will be appreciated as it is generally known that he was given up to die just a few short weeks ago.

What He Has Done for Others He Can and Will Do for You!

Dr. Raymond's Televida treatment has been highly endorsed by prominent doctors, lawyers, ministers, merchants and housewives.

For the past twenty years he has confined his practice to all chronic, special, nervous, blood and skin diseases of men and women. During that time he has restored to health many of the worst cases imaginable of Rheumatism, Partial Paralysis, Liver, Stomach and Bladder Trouble, Varicocele, Prostatitis, Gailstones, Appendicitis, Men's Weakness, Female Trouble, Discharges, Partial Deafness, Asthma, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Eczema, Skin Diseases, Nervousness, Neuralgia, Piles, Fistula, Blood Poison and Worms. Dr. Raymond has hundreds of testimonials on file to prove that he is able to CURE when other methods and medicines have failed.

If you are sick, if you have been doctoring a long time and getting no better, if you have spent out many hard-earned dollars in doctor's bills, if you are discouraged and have given up hope, consult Dr. Raymond at the Hotel Alhertion on Friday, July 18th. Let him advise you regarding your case. It will cost you nothing to get his expert opinion and may be the means of saving you from years of further suffering and countless dollars spent in doctor's bills.

WARNING! No matter how long you have suffered, no matter what your ailment is, nor how chronic disease conditions have become—you will do yourself an injustice if you miss this opportunity of consulting with this eminent German specialist, DR. EDWIN RAYMOND, Friday, July 18, at the Hotel Alhertion, one day only. Office hours: 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. CONSULTATION FREE.—Advertisement.

TOURED ORANGE COUNTY

Delightful Affair at W. D. Mateer Home in Honor of Host's Adult Class

One of the most enjoyable social events of the summer season took place last evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Mateer at 202 Orange avenue. The happy affair was given by Mr. Mateer in honor of his adult class in the First Presbyterian church Sunday school, and was attended by about sixty out of a total membership of eighty-five. A number were away on their vacations and several were unfortunately prevented from attending by sickness. Beautiful decorations of roses, hydrangeas and ferns were used in decorating the spacious rooms of the Mateer home.

The principal feature of the evening's entertainment was the popular railroad excursion which was run through the points of interest in Orange county. Mrs. H. S. Gordon sold tickets for the trip and proved to be a first class ticket agent, answering all the foolish questions and handing out the bits of postcard as if she had had years of experience along that line. Mr. J. W. Flagg was the genial conductor, using his old automobile horn at every opportunity. Mrs. Mc Cain acted as the jolly partner, Mrs. Ella Parker, who boarded the train at El Toro and who persisted in eating her lunch, and Mrs. Morrison, who had more than her share of valises, boxes and bundles, were sources of great annoyance to the other passengers. Mr. George Thacker and Mrs. Spencer boarded the train at Temezo Springs and caused an uproar as the newly married couple. Rev. M. J. Williams did a thriving business as auctioneer. Miss Alice Trickey was an efficient person and general agent.

A such action was called the guests changed seats and participated in conversation which were found on their tickets and which prevented any dull moments. After some time spent in conversation, the conductor announced a forty minute stop in Anaheim. It is said that R. J. Blee showed effects of his stay in the German city.

When all points of interest had been visited a stop of twenty minutes was made for lunch which was none of the common railroad lunch counter variety. It was, instead, the most delicious brick ice cream in colors of pink and white, cake of white and gold and nuts.

During the evening a fine five-piece orchestra made up of the Cattle family of El Modena rendered excellent music. Mr. J. W. Flagg pleased the class with several vocal solos and Rev. Williams also gave a number of readings that were much enjoyed. Later flash light pictures were taken of the assembled guests.

At a late hour the members of the class departed, wishing the Mateers many more such evenings. If the Mateers' greatest pleasure is in making every one enjoy himself at their home, as it is said it is, then they must have fulfilled that desire last evening.

Pretty Birthday Party

Carolyn Dunnahan was ten years old yesterday and to celebrate the event her mother, Mrs. E. L. Dunnahan of 1612 Spurgeon street, invited ten of Carolyn's friends to spend the afternoon.

A number of games such as children like were played out-of-doors and later refreshments were served in the dining room. A pretty color scheme of pink and white was carried out. A pink and white birthday cake was crowned by ten burning candles, while the same shades were also seen in the ice cream.

Covers were laid for as many guests as the honoree was years old, the children present being Roxana and Douglas McPhee, Worth and Stanley Alexander, Vera Hendrickson, Mabel Trindle, Marlon Baker and Hazel Burrier.

No Services During Rector's Absence
Rev. and Mrs. Rufus S. Chase will leave early in August for a month's recreation and rest, much of which time they plan to spend with friends at Pacific Grove.

During the rector's absence the Church of the Messiah will not hold services.

GARBETT-TEDFORD

Popular Native Daughter Was Married Today to San Franciscan

At eleven o'clock today Miss Leal Tedford and Mr. Leonard Garbett were united in marriage by Rev. W. J. Burtecher at the beautiful new home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Tedford, at 716 West Fourth street. Only the immediate relatives were present.

The living room was decorated in red, blue and American Beauty roses and the dining room in Shasta daisies.

The bride was gown in a traveling suit of gray ratine with accessories to match.

The bride is one of Orange county's fairest native daughters and the groom is a member of a prominent old English family, his birthplace having been Wellington, England.

The happy young couple will live in San Francisco, where Mr. Garbett is connected with the St. Francis Hotel. The bride leaves a host of friends who wish her much happiness in her new life.

Urges W. C. T. U. Women

The President of the W. C. T. U. desires to call special attention to the address to be given in the First Presbyterian church on Saturday evening by Daniel A. Poling, national Endeavor Superintendent of Temperance and Citizenship and urges that every member of the W. C. T. U. who is able, be present to hear the address. Mr. Poling is one of the best speakers of the day and it is a rare privilege to be able to have the opportunity to hear him. He has been in California for the purpose of attending the Christian Endeavor convention and a few places have been fortunate in securing him as a speaker. At one of his addresses at the convention thousands of men and boys pledged themselves to vote for the man who stood for prohibition and principle. This is one of the greatest steps the Christian Endeavor has ever taken and with such a man as Daniel Poling, with his converted life, his commanding presence, his wonderful ability as an orator, he will show to the world that he is in every way fitted for this position.

Mr. Poling will also speak in the City Hall at two meetings on Saturday under the Prohibitionists of the county. The W. C. T. U. members are requested to come out on Saturday afternoon and help with the music.

Day at the Beach

The ladies of the Afternoon Whist Club enjoyed a delightful outing Tuesday at the W. A. Huff cottage at Newport Beach. The ladies went down in the morning, each taking along something to contribute toward a substantial as well as delicious picnic lunch. In the afternoon the time was devoted to whist. Mrs. John Tubbs winning first prize, while Mrs. Henry Rutherford was awarded the consolation.

"Weenie" Bake

A very jolly weenie bake was enjoyed on the sands of Laguna Beach last Thursday evening. The young people from Santa Ana were taken down in autos and by the time they arrived at the sea shore they all had "some appetite." Two large fires were built on the beach, over one of which was hung a coffee pot in which the amber fluid brewed, and over the other the "weenies" were roasted on long sticks. Big buns with plenty of mustard, and "weenies" and coffee constituted the feast. Games and stories kept the party until a late hour, when the ride home was a delightful ending to the picnic.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Joe Babbitt, Robert Bunch; Misses Lucy Stephens, Irene Edwards, Lois Parks, Lottie Pippa, Elsie Morrow, Anna Young, Pauline Jarens; Messrs. Joe Allen, Jesse Bangerly, Mike Rogers, Joe Jarens, Chas. Harding, Jack Sells, Chas. Anson, Donau Jarens.

Whist Club

Tonight the regular weekly meeting of the Round Duplicate Whist Club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Worden.

HOLD "SURPRISE MEETING"

Ladies of First Baptist Church Charmingely Entertained at Home of Miss Taylor

About sixty-five of the Baptist ladies of the First church gathered yesterday afternoon at the beautiful home of Miss Mary Taylor to the "surprise meeting," the second of the series to be given this year under the Women's Missionary Society. This meeting was in charge of the following committee: Mrs. E. J. Foster, Mrs. A. C. Black, Mrs. C. E. French, Mrs. J. Wiley Harris, Miss Ada Borden and Miss Mary Taylor.

After the opening hymn with Mrs. Russell at the piano, Miss Camp led the devotionals, and a short business session followed with the much loved and admired president, Mrs. F. L. Austin, presiding. Mrs. Ada Brown gave ten minutes to the review of current events, and then the meeting was turned over to the chairman of the committee for the afternoon program.

Mrs. Foster very beautifully spoke of the "House of the Baptists Built" and very lovingly of the "Light Bearers" (the missionaries) who have gone out from the "House." She told briefly of her own visits to the house and her entertainment and enjoyment while there, and then introduced Miss Viola Hill, one of the graduates, asking her to tell of the training school which she did. She not only told of the building but she told of the way the girls were called on by the Chicago churches for different lines of work, and how they went out into the city slums among the different nationalities in service.

She was followed by Miss Helen Austin, who introduced a graduate of the training school who had gone as a missionary to Cuba, and she told of the work there and some of the needs.

Miss Grace McKusky, dressed as an Indian carrying on her back her papoose, next appeared on the scene, and as she stood back to the crowd the panose told of life on the reservation and compared the Indian life with the life of the white man. The Indian life being a "going backward" instead of forward like his white brother.

Miss Lucy Hill, a lady of color from the South, told of her home in the South and how the missionaries had come in and what they had done for her people. She also read an extract from a letter written by Johanna P. Moore, the pioneer missionary to the negro.

A Syrian young lady representing Miss Ryskie osh i nbl lugal an The Miss Ryskie Halder, looked very much like Miss Bertha Bates. She told us of her life in Syria and of her coming to the United States and how she became interested in missions and became a student in the Chicago Training School, and how after her graduation she was sent to Los Angeles to work among her own people. At present she is contemplating a return to her native land to regain her long health.

Miss Marguerite West made a very nice Chinese lady and carried her face just as she should. She was converted in Sacramento, Cal., and very sweetly spoke of her work with her own people, closing her remarks with a beautiful and appropriate poem.

The Japanese lady, Miss Alberta Black, told us of her life in Japan and how she came to the mission station and finally to the United States. She spoke of the Japanese in this country, and in California, and of their great need of the "Light."

It is needless to say these "Light Bearers" were very interesting as well as instructive, and all the ladies present voted the "surprise" program a great success.

A social time followed and light refreshments of fruitade and wafers were served.

The next program will be handled by Mrs. G. P. Hill, Miss Viola Hill and their committee.

Farewell Party

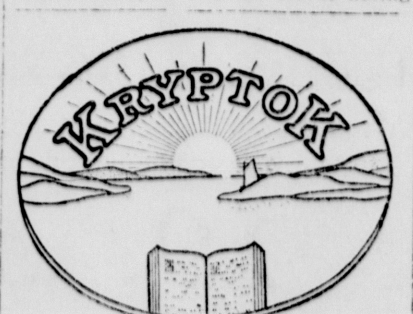

Several friends and neighbors of the McPhees of 925 French street met last evening informally to bid farewell to Mrs. McPhee's sister, Mrs. L. Clinton of Portland, Oregon, who has been visiting in Santa Ana for several weeks past. While here Mrs. Clinton has made many friends who will be sorry to have her return home. Mrs. Clinton leaves Santa Ana today.

Entertained at Dinner

A number of friends were informally entertained last evening at a delightful 6 o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Tabbot of 1727 North Main street. A color scheme of pink was effectively used in the pretty table decorations. The honorees were Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Badson of Chicago, Miss Gay Palmer, Mrs. Myers of Nebraska and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Badson.

Restful and Entertaining

The Auditorium Theater was crowded last night with an audience fully appreciative of the performance given. Chuckles of laughter and enthusiastic applause were frequently heard in response to the clever acting and clean fun of the amusers on the platform. The music furnished by the six-piece orchestra adds much to the pleasure of an evening spent at the Auditorium. The pictures are noiseless, exceptionally clear and almost free from motion when on the screen. The one telling the story of the capture of Abraham Lincoln is repeated at tonight's performance, is interesting as well as instructive.

DON'T use a cough medicine containing opium or morphine. They constipate the bowels and do not cure, only stifle the cough. P. A. Ford, Concho, Calif., gives a pointer for others to profit by. "I have sold Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, also other lines of cough medicine for a number of years, but never used anything but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for myself or family, as I find it produces the best results, it cures severe colds, and does not contain opiates." If seven doctors had told you, as they did C. E. Blanchard of La Grange, Calif., that you had but a short time to live on account of kidney trouble, what would you do? He says: "I had kidney trouble so bad that I had to go to the hospital. Had seven different doctors, and they said I had but a short time to live. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they completely cured me and I can not speak too highly of them." Cost less than the doctors, but accomplished more. Contains no habit forming drugs. R. Hewers of Wood

The origins of the Futurist and Cubist schools of sculpture have not been inquired into closely enough. None has thought yet to connect these artistic experimenters with those sturdy hewers who evolved the archaic, the wooden cigarstore Indian, or, by way of variation, Turk. Move the calendar on six hundred years; would any expert authority, coming upon the carved head of Mlle. Pogany and one of the beehive Indian tribe in the ruins of New York, deny that they had come from the same hand?

Pure inspiration suggests the connection. Let another follow the clue. This is simply to note one cigarstore Indian on the Bowery, the work of an original genius. The figure of the Indian is of the familiar school, and the coloring without distinction. But in the Indian's hands the workman placed cleverly a real old flintlock musket. The ancient weapon, after all the vicissitudes of Bowery life, is still in excellent condition.—Harper's Weekly.

Peas on Toast

Delicious and new to many tables will be the peas served on toast. Pour a can of sweet peas into a saucepan to cook until tender. Into this stir a half cupful of butter rubbed into a cream, with a teaspoonful of flour and a little salt. Add a half cupful of hot water. Pour the peas and gravy over six light brown slices of toast arranged on a large platter.

THE MAN IN THE ORIENT.

He Walks Ahead of His Wife to Guard Her From Danger.

When husband and wife go traveling together in the orient the man walks in front, careless and free, and the woman walks behind, carrying the bundle. Therefore you say: "The oriental cares not for his women. He despises his wife and uses her as a beast of burden." Most accidentals never get further than that. But if you are observant you go out in the jungle yourself, and you discover things. When you walk abroad there are difficulties and dangers. The paths are overgrown and thorny, creepers must be driven off, and buffaloes are ugly creatures.

In the villages are village dogs which snarl and snap. You are a man, yet you will be glad of some one to go in front of you with a hatchet to clear your way. No woman would walk in front, and the man must be free. Now you see the reason why the man walks in front. If you want to confirm it you inquire and find that this is true. Thus the Japanese, the German, goes in front of his wife for the same reason that the accidental goes behind—from courtesy. If he continues to do so when it is unnecessary, as in towns where there are roads, it is because a convention once formed is hard to break, east or west.—H. Fielding-Hall in Atlantic Monthly.

A DOG IN A GALE.

Able to Keep His Feet Where a Man Would Be Blown Away.

A gale that blows a man off his feet does not bother a dog at all. He will run about unconcernedly while his master walks with the greatest difficulty. This is for the same reason that a high building is more affected than a low one by a gale. It is also because the dog has four legs to support his body, while a man has only two.

With topsails set a yacht would capsize in a gale which it would ride out with safety if only its lower sails were set, for the leverage exerted by the wind increases in proportion to the height at which the sails are set. A man by reason of his height receives far more force from the wind than does a dog.

Then, again, a dog's center of gravity is much lower in proportion to his height than is a man's; consequently he is not nearly so tipsy. And it is obvious that any object supported on four legs is more stable than if supported on two.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Sharon's Influence.

Thomas Sharon, although a cabinetmaker by trade, it is quite probable during his life in London, did not actually produce any furniture, as his time was too much taken up by his occupation as Baptist preacher, tricarrier, drawing master, designer and publisher to bestow any attention on the manufacture or superintendence of cabinet work. His "Cabinetmaker and Upholsterer's Drawing Book" was published first in 1791 and again in 1793 and 1802. He was possessed of keen critical insight in matters pertaining to high class cabinetmaking, combined with an excellent sense of proportion, sound judgment and purity of taste, and his influence on the style of furniture in the latter part of the eighteenth century was exercised through his designs and criticisms, which had no little weight with the cabinetmakers of his day.—Suburban Life Magazine.

Exercise and Health.

There was a bank clerk who saw the men of his own age losing health year by year through overwork, indoor sedentary life and lack of daily exercise. He saw them growing yellow and flabby and unfit and the spectacle didn't attract him. He decided that success had better come late or even not at all rather than at the price of a ruined body. Health became to him the choicest of the merces, the best of life's comrades. Up and away the person in health can dash to another job, to another climate, master of his fate. Ill health is a chain that ties to the dreariness of what is nearest at hand. After a youth of weakness and fatigue the man was happy in finding that an hour of exercise a day changed the report of the outer world and removed him for all time from the ranks of the unfit.—Collier's.

Honored by Precedent.

A well known Washington minister tells of a couple who came to him to be married. The bridegroom was upon his third matrimonial venture, the bride upon her second.

"Please stand up," said the clergyman, prepared to pronounce the necessary words.

The bride looked at the bridegroom. The bridegroom looked at the bride. Then he said politely but firmly: "We have generally so."—Exchange.

"Why should they?"

"Because to see him is good for sore eyes."—Baltimore American.

Backers of Brook Farm

The men who organized "Brook Farm" and made a community of it, in 1841, were Charles A. Dana, George Ripley, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Theodore Parker, Nathaniel Hawthorne, George William Curtis and Dr. Elmore Channing. Margaret Fuller was also interested in the experiment.

It turned out to be a failure, because enough was not earned to support it. It was located at West Roxbury, Mass.

This community was organized "to substitute a system of brotherly cooperation for one of selfish competition." Each member of the community had to work a certain number of hours each day for the common good. The property was equally divided, and the products of the land were sold.

There are two big acts and all new pictures at the Bell tonight and Friday. You will see the Pathe Weekly and Mutt and Jeff. It is a good show.

At the Auditorium

There is to be an entire new bill of vaudeville on at the Auditorium tonight and for the balance of the week. (See advertising announcements.)

That the line shows at this hand some theater are pleasing Santa Ana people is more than evident by the large and ever-increasing attendance.

THIS A PROSPEROUS YEAR IN ALL ORANGE COUNTY

BOTH CROPS AND PRICES ARE GOOD

This Section Has Made a Wonderful Record With Its Oranges and Lemons

BEANS AND BEETS ARE LOOKING RIGHT

Walnut Outlook Encouraging for Both Yield and Coin of the Realm

One of Orange County's Numerous Packing-houses. Which Are Sending Out the Best Oranges in the State.

Orange County farmers and fruit growers have every reason to feel satisfied, for crops are in fine condition. One may travel all over Southern California, and he will find no county where the general average of prosperity among the ranchers is so high as in Orange County.

This county does not depend upon any crop alone. There could be a failure of any crop, and the county as a whole would hardly know it. That is the condition in a county that has a great variety of crops.

Oranges from this section are selling at tip-top prices. Never before in the history of the industry was this county's advantage so thoroughly impressed upon the minds of eastern orange and lemon buyers as they have been impressed upon them this year. Other sections are shipping some fruit, but this is the county that is sending out the best fruit in Southern California. In this county only are found oranges and lemons in quantity, unadmixed absolutely free from frost damage.

There were some orchardists who were hard hit. Those sections where the frost did not land are reaping a golden harvest in high prices. Many orchards that at first appeared to have been hit by frost recovered during the spring, and fine fruit is now being gathered and shipped from them. As a whole the county is going to get more money from its oranges and lemons this year than it did last year.

While the hay and grain crops were short, the prices are excellent, and the production in this county averaged far better than in other southern counties.

Sugar beet prospects are bright. All of the factories are well pleased with the condition of their acreage. The yield promises to be heavier than last year, and all of the tests that have been made show a good sugar content. Certainly if one is going out to look for hard times he need not go among the beet growers of Orange County. The beet harvest will begin next month.

Then, too, the lima bean growers are feeling confident of making fair crops. While there were no late rains, the growers got a fair stand of beans, and the weather conditions have been favorable to the growth of the vines. A severe spell of hot weather might come along and do a lot of damage, but the growers are optimistic. For a dry year the weather man has been exceedingly kind, and hopes are high that his kindness will continue. The next thirty days will tell the tale of the lima bean and black-eye bean production. The prospect for good prices is encouraging.

The apricot crop is short all over the state, and in having a short crop this county is not materially different from other sections. Some of the growers are taking off heavy crops, but the rule is a light production. The quality is excellent and the indications are that big prices will be paid for the dried fruit.

Now for walnuts. Walnuts in this county are one of several products that are bringing about $1,500,000 a year to the tillers of the soil and the care-takers of trees of this splendid county. Walnuts are a good crop this year in Orange County. In fact, it is nearly always a good crop in this county if it is good anywhere in the state. The blight has caused some dropping, but there are enough walnuts on the trees to insure a crop that will be up to the average. There is a lot of new acreage coming into bearing.

Vegetable crops are in good condition. Gardens are prospering. Taking the county over, there is an air of prosperity such as ought to please any person interested in the progress of this great little county.

L. B. Valla, commercial agent of the Southern Pacific, said:

"I have been all over my district, and I have found that everything is looking fine. Crops are in good condition, and those crops now on the trees and in the ground have bright prospects for yield and prices."

ITALIAN MUSICAL MAESTRI EXTOL PATENT NOSTRUMS

ROME, July 17.—Musical Italy has gone America one better in the matter of the advertising jocosus which adorn the street cars of today. Hereafter all will be set to music—and that by the best modern masters. Puccini, composer of "Madame Butterfly," has just set to music an ode extolling the merits of a tooth powder. Caruso, "the golden," has drawn a caricature of himself in which words and music are issuing from his mouth in praise of a certain brand of soap. Leoncavallo, of "Pagliacci" fame, is the author of the music to a hymn which tells just what kind of hair tonic will make two hairs grow where there haven't been any for many years.

FRAUD ALLEGED IN GUGGENHEIM DIVORCE

CHICAGO, July 17.—Declaring that the divorce of William Guggenheim, the millionaire mining man, from Grace Brown Guggenheim-Wahl in 1901 was obtained by fraud, collusion and criminal conspiracy, Judges Windes, Heard and Baldwin, sitting en banc today, instructed State's Attorney Hoyne to proceed in criminal action against the alleged parties to the fraud.

WOMAN CARRIES OUT SUICIDE PACT; MAN LOSES NERVE

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—With wavering resolve, but falling in courage at the last minute to carry out his part in a coolly planned suicide pact, John G. Boyle of San Francisco, his fortune gone, and in ill health, stood on the sands at Redondo Beach Tuesday evening and watched his wife leave his side and resolutely walk to her death in the breakers.

As the waves lapped his feet, he ventured a few steps forward, for a moment with full determination to end all along with his wife. Then he turned and fled. Last evening he was arrested and is now in the county jail, charged with aiding and abetting his wife in committing suicide.

The dramatic story of the death agreement, entered into in San Francisco over a week ago, discussed and planned day after day, and executed by but one, was revealed yesterday by Boyle after the lifeless body of his wife had been washed up by the waves.

Boyle admitted the suicidal pact when brought to the county jail last night. He ascribed the cause to recent ill health which led to a complete nervous breakdown, and to financial difficulties. It is said he was at one time quite wealthy, and lost a quarter of a million dollars in Wall street a few years ago.

SEATTLE IS CHALLENGED

Orange County Union Enters Race for Number of C. E. Experts

During the International C.E. convention which closed Monday, the Orange County Union challenged the Seattle, Wash., Union to a race in securing Endeavor experts. At the close of the race, April 1, 1914, the losing union will present the winner with a beautiful banner. At present Seattle has 41 experts and Orange County 52. As there are only 1100 experts among the millions of Endeavorers, the past records of these unions indicate that the race will be fast and furious.

The booth erected by the Orange county delegation for headquarters purposes was conceded by all to be the handsomest of the many pretty booths. Eight hundred oranges, 600 palm leaves, two bales of green moss, hundreds of flowers, fern, and many bananas were used in its decoration. Upon first sight many exclaimed: "Are those real oranges?" They were satisfied when at the close of the convention all eastern delegates were invited to eat the decorations on the Orange county booth. Many pieces of literature advertising Orange county were distributed, and much interest in Orange county was aroused.

On Friday evening an immense parade of delegates was held. Orange county turned out in force. At the head of the delegation a huge Orange shaped banner was carried, as well as many smaller banners. Their songs and yells were greeted with shouts of approval from the great crowds which lined the streets. The Los Angeles papers stated that Orange county made the handsomest showing of any delegation in the parade.

INCREASE IN COST OF STATE SCHOOLS

SACRAMENTO, July 17.—California extended state aid amounting to a grand total of $5,067,552 to primary and elementary schools for the school year 1912-13, according to figures announced today from the state superintendent's office after the final apportionment of money had been made. Yesterday's apportionment amounted to $572,189.

The apportionment for the year just closed exceeded that of 1911-12 by $168,316. School money paid out by the state to the counties was disbursed for the year just closed on the basis of $250 for each teacher and $9.08 per pupil on the average daily attendance.

For 1911-12 the rate per pupil was $9.52, or considerably more than this year, even though the total amount paid out this year exceeded that of the year previous by almost $170,000.

The increase in the number of teachers and the average daily attendance is held responsible. In 1912-13 figures show that 514 more teachers were regularly employed than for the preceding year, while 17,638 more pupils attended schools daily.

IS GATHERING FINE FRUITS

McDannald Gets Some Elegant Specimens From Local Orchards

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, Los Angeles, July 17.—If a full fruit crop is any index to good times and prosperity, then Orange county should have a load of prosperity on her shoulders. I have made several excursions through the orchard districts lately, and I find most of the trees, except in some apricot orchards, laden to their capacity, and not a few have attempted a burden they were not able to bear, for I saw many limbs lying prone with an overload. We have been able to collect some fancy specimens. An old adage says "Make hay while the sun shines," and we are garnering a crop now while the fruit is plentiful and of exceptional quality. This fruit will be exhibited at the world's fairs in 1915. We already have processed over 200 jars.

Yesterday I was made happy by the gift of the finest silver-skin onions that ever grew on top of the ground. Mr. R. D. Hines of Pollerino was the grower. One of them weighed a fraction less than 2 1/2 pounds, and there were several more of the family crowding in as a close second. Jasper Leek at Tustin gave me a limb of Satsuma plums that looked for all the world like a warty stick. Out at the San Joaquin fruit ranch I "found" because I got them in the absence of the owner, and they were so large I am really ashamed to describe them. This explanation will be sufficient to convince you of their size. At W. W. Halesworth's place I got everything from Persian mulberries to Arizona cactus. And Billy had the heart to say "Come again." Around Orange and Villa Park I found many fine samples, but as most of the owners were conveniently absent I am not at liberty to give names.

A. J. Boulanger, manager of the Villa Park packing house, was very kind to direct me to his neighbors who were growing choice fruits and vegetables, but he forgot to caution me about the dog that lurks in the back yard. I forgive you this time, A. J., but don't repeat the experience. I stopped at Ray Billingsley's, and during the gentleman's absence picked some bananas, dates, Sparks' mammoth apricots and such other good things as I could load in the wagon. I am going again tomorrow, but I think it wise to select a new route. In the name of Orange county, I thank you gentlemen, one and all.

D. W. McDANNALD.

G. F. Zimmerman and family have moved from North Glassell street to North Pine street, near Chapman.

The Hotel Haynes on West Chapman avenue has changed management with the exchange of the property for a ranch at Pomona. The C. C. Holland family, who have owned the hotel for the last few months, left today for Pomona. Mr. and Mrs. McCoombs, the new owners, are expected shortly from Pomona to take charge of the business.

The Orange Business Men and Ranchers baseball teams clashed yesterday at the high school grounds in a benefit game for the city team's new uniforms. The game was a wildly enthusiastic affair with the city closes down the "rubes" by the close score of 12 to 11. The game was so hotly contested that the Ranchers were not satisfied, so a return game will be played next Wednesday.

Mrs. A. L. Hitchcock, Mrs. W. A. Holt and Mrs. J. S. Braisher went to Los Angeles yesterday to see Mrs. W. J. Downs, who is in the Angelus Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Heinig of South Center street, returned yesterday from San Diego, where they have been visiting since Monday.

SIDE STEPS REGULATION OF WOMEN'S DRESSES

PITTSBURG, July 17.—"Why should I tell Pittsburgh women what to wear? What do I know about it? Not on your life! Will I order any arrests? I should say not. Are you trying to get me into trouble?"

With these words, Director John F. Dailey of the department of public safety disposed of the woman's dress question for Pittsburgh. Director Dailey is a former swimming champion and all-around athlete. As a swimmer he was not unused to scantily attired women.

"I think, for my part, the women are dressing all right," said the director. "They know what they want to wear, and I believe in letting them wear it. At any rate, they'll do it, whether we like it or not."

TAMED THE MONARCH.

The Part a Silver Inkstand Played in a National Crisis.

The pages of history record many instances in which trivial incidents have shaped the destinies of nations. According to a story in the New York Tribune, a small silver inkstand and the quick wit of a prime minister once played an important part in the history of the Netherlands.

William III, king of the Netherlands, was a man of violent and ungovernable temper. Although in general a clever statesman, he was inclined, for some reason or other, to involve Holland in the trouble that was brewing between France and Germany in 1870. He was deaf to the appeals of his ministers, who foresaw the ruin to the country that war would bring.

Thorbecke, the prime minister, resolved to make one last attempt to change his sovereign's resolution. On entering the royal presence Thorbecke was greeted with a rough "Good morning! What's the news?"

"Nothing particular, your majesty. Only the people of The Hague are talking a great deal of nonsense about your majesty."

"About me?" exclaimed the monarch. In wrath. "What do they say about me?"

"Well, sir," answered the old statesman, "The Hagueners declare that your majesty has become stark, staring mad!" Before he could utter another word King William, his face purple with fury, jumped up and seized a heavy silver inkstand, with the intention of hurling it at the head of the premier. Fortunately a projecting angle of the inkstand caught in the table cloth and dragged it off the table with everything upon it. In the confusion the discharge of the missile was delayed for a moment.

"Sire," exclaimed Thorbecke quietly, "if your majesty huris that beautiful inkstand at my head The Hagueners will have much reason for their assertion."

For a minute the angry king gazed in silence at his minister. Then he gradually lowered his arm and replaced the inkstand on the table. He walked to one of the windows and stood looking out for a few minutes. Returning to the table, he resumed his seat and said, as if nothing had happened: "And now tell me what you have got to say."

An hour later, when the statesman left, he carried with him the monarch's promise to issue a proclamation that would declare the neutrality of Holland.

A PETRIFIED WATERFALL.

Algeria's Stone Cataract Is Called "The Bath of the Damned."

With all the beauty of a cataract of living water there is in Algeria a remarkable petrified waterfall which recently has been engaging the attention of scientists. This is the Hammam-Meskoutine, which means "the bath of the damned," and it is located sixty-two miles from Constantine, on the site of the ancient town of Cirta.

This solidified cascade is the production of calcareous deposits from sulphurous and ferruginous mineral springs, issuing from the depths of the earth at a temperature of 95 degrees C. "The bath of the damned," even from a near viewpoint, looks for all the world like a great wall of water dashing into a swirling pool at its foot, yet its gleaming, graceful curves and the apparently swirling eddies at its base are as fixed and immovable as if carved from the face of a granite cliff.

Many centuries have, of course, gone to the making of the deposits, and the springs were well known to the ancient Romans. The name Hammam-Meskoutine was given to the stone cataract in an allusion to the legend that the waterfall was petrified by Allah, punishing the impiety of unbelievers by turning all the members of a tribe into stone. At night, so the story runs, its stone dwellers of the remote past are freed from their strange fetters, come to life and resume their normal shapes.—Illustrated London News.

Old Love and New Rug.
"Those people next door to us have been married a long time, haven't they?"
"Perhaps they have, but their honeymoon isn't over yet."
"How do you figure that out?"
"Well, it was awfully sloppy last night, but when he came home she made him step inside and kiss her before she told him to go back on the porch and wipe his feet."
"Well, honey, wouldn't you?"
"No, I wouldn't! We've got a new rug!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Fork and Cake.
A correspondent points a curious antipodean fashion. In New Zealand ladies eat cake with a fork, and the reason is the shortage of domestic servants. You don't see the connection? Well, the New Zealand lady so often has to do her own housework that it is the fashion at afternoon teas to keep gloves on—in mercy to possible roughened hands—whence the fork of the cake.—London Chronicle.

Modest Child.
At a social gathering a little girl recited "The Charge of the Light Brigade." Reaching the line "Into the jaws of death, into the mouth of hell," she paused and, looking around, added: "Where papa told uncle to go last night."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Different.
Jones—James, I heard you using profanity to the horses this forenoon. Coachman—No, sir; no, sir! I'm very careful of the horses, sir! I was talking to my wife, sir!—Kansas City Star

The Pilgrim's Progress DUNGEON OF DESPAIR

Once upon a time there was a giant named Despair, who had a wife named Diffidence. They were living in a little bungalow, the niftiest thing on the street, and everything was just lovely except the kitchen. The husband despaired of getting breakfast, and despaired of getting dinner, and naturally took his lunch up town. He despaired cutting enough kindling and wood, and in carrying out ashes. His wife was diffident to all these annoying details, saying, "It's up to you. I do the best I can with the old cook stove."

One day there called a fairy named Golden Promise, who carried a key which opened Doubting Castle, and she invited Giant Despair and Mrs. Diffidence to a pink tea to show her how her $18.00 gas range worked. They were dumbfounded to find everything right up to the minute. Despair vanished and Diffidence took heart.

KOEBSELL HAS ONE BOAT OPERATING ON COAST NEAR SERRA

F. J. K. Koebseil of Serra, who proposes to build a small harbor there and to conduct an establishment for canning and smoking fish, was in Santa Ana this morning on business connected with his project. As yet his petition to the Board of Supervisors for a permit to build a breakwater has not been acted upon. At present Koebseil is erecting a building for his work. He is operating one fish boat, and is shipping his catches to the Los Angeles market. The petition to the supervisors was referred to Supervisor Leck.

CHINESE PROVINCES PLAN SECESSION

PEKING, July 17.—The provinces of Kiangsi, Kiangsu, Kwangsi, Ko Kien, Sze Chuen, Hu-Nan, Nian-Hwei and Kwang Tung are preparing to declare their independence and to form a southern Chinese confederacy, according to apparently authoritative statements current here. Fighting continues in the province of Kiangsi and large numbers of northern troops are proceeding there.

The attitude of the Japanese is bitterly commented on here. The Chinese believe they are stirring up strife everywhere and Japanese officers are said to be fighting on the side of the rebels. The presence of Japanese gunboats in the fighting zone lends color to this belief. The southerners openly assert that they have received assurances of Japanese support.

Commenting on an alleged speech by the Japanese minister designated to China in which Yuan Shi Kai's administration was criticised, the newspapers pointedly refer to the recall of Charles R. Crane, former United States minister to China, after his interview in Chicago, and intimate that similar action would be advisable in the case of Enjiro Ramaza.

The German consulate at Nanjing was surrounded yesterday by insurgents. It was stated that in the event of an attack the Germans intended to adopt their own measures for protection. The trouble apparently arose owing to the Germans recently permitting the extradition of two revolutionaries who had taken refuge in the German concession at Hankow.

CAPTURE BIG LOT OF CONTRABAND AMMUNITION

EL PASO, Tex., July 17.—United States officers, assisted by Mexican consular agents, captured the largest consignment of contraband ammunition ever taken here, when they discovered 448,000 rounds of rifle cartridges with coal in a car in the Santa Fe railroad yards. Today the prisoners, who are of the laboring class, were arraigned before the United States commissioner.

An American, believed by some to be the leader of the smuggling party, scaped, but is being hunted. The ammunition was being crated in a local coal yard, and is believed by the officers to have been a shipment for General Francisco Villa, destined to a border point near Columbus, N. M. Villa is reported planning an early attack on Juarez. The estimated value of the cartridges is $20,000.

FIFTEEN MINERS WERE TRAPPED BY CLOUDBURST

EVELETH, Minn., July 17.—Fifteen miners were trapped in Spruce mine No. 1 here yesterday by the rush of water from a cloudburst that deluged the city. Ten were rescued alive at 5 o'clock p.m. The others are believed to be dead, but rescuers are working frantically in one-hour shifts blasting through a wall in an upper drift, while in the mine pumps are draining the workings.

A WAR TRICK OF THE GREAT CARthaginian

When Hannibal, the great Carthaginian, was fighting Eumenes of Pergamum with a fleet of very inferior strength he hit upon an artifice which would scarcely be sanctioned by the laws of what we are pleased to call civilized warfare. He discovered by means of a bogus message under a flag of truce on which ship the king was. He then caused poisonous snakes to be inclosed in earthen jars. These he distributed among several ships and ordered them to close up on the king's galley. In the melee that followed the jars were flung unto the deck. The curious bombs were greeted at first with ridicule, which soon changed to panic when the nature of their contents made itself manifest. The galley was extricated from the fight as soon as possible, and the captains of the others, believing that the king had taken flight, followed suit, with the result that Hannibal gained a complete victory.

Entomological.

Charles had heard much at home and at school about the best way to insure good health and, although only nine years old, had taken great interest in the subject. The other day he told his mother that he wanted to go to a lecture that night. Much amused, she asked him what it was about.

"You know, mother, it is about how to take care of yourself. I can't think of the name of it, but you know."

"Maybe I do," she said, "but I can't tell unless you give me a better idea about it."

"Well, mother," he said thoughtfully, "it is about two bugs and a locust."

For a moment she was at sea, and then it dawned upon her that his "two bugs and a locust" was tuberculosis.—New York Post.

Complaint.

"You are always complaining about the taxpayer."

"Yes, I sympathize with the masses."

"How much do you pay in the way of taxes?"

"My dear sir, that has nothing to do with the case. The man who is paying a whole lot of taxes is usually so busy that he hasn't time to do his own complaining."—Washington Star.

POSTMASTER AT SAN DIEGO IS ON THE GRIDIRON

SAN DIEGO, July 17.—Charges of political activity against Postmaster C. M. Bartholomew, made by persons whose names the federal authorities fail to divulge, are being investigated by Charles S. Ranger, postoffice inspector for the San Francisco division.

Among the charges is one to the effect that the postmaster permitted George W. Marston, candidate for mayor in a recent campaign, to address postal employees in the so-called swing room of the postoffice, and that he asked the employees to remain during off duty hours to listen to the speech.

Other charges have been made, growing out of the trial and imprisonment of three postal employees charged with opening mail in the office.

BUSY TIME FOR SECRETARY DANIELS IN ANGEL CITY

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—Final announcement of the plans made for the entertainment of Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels during his stay in Los Angeles yesterday was given out by the Chamber of Commerce.

The secretary's party will arrive from San Diego the evening of Wednesday, July 23. The members will be met by a committee from the Chamber of Commerce and will be escorted to Hotel Alexandria. At 7:29 o'clock Secretary Daniels will be taken to the Shrine Auditorium, where a membership smoker will be held by the chamber. Two hours later the cabinet member will be taken to Hotel Alexandria to attend the complimentary banquet to be tendered him by the Press Club of Los Angeles.

A committee of women of Los Angeles, headed by Mrs. Arthur W. Kinney, will have Mrs. Daniels in hand during the evening. A box party at the Orpheum, followed by a supper, will be tendered in her honor. The following day she will be taken on an automobile sight-seeing trip about the city and its suburbs.

The morning of July 24 will find Secretary Daniels at the harbor with the harbor commission on a trip of inspection. He will visit the proposed site of harbor fortifications, and, if time permits, will be taken to the Craig shipyards. Luncheon will be served at Hotel Virginia, Long Beach. Immediately following the honored guest will be brought to Los Angeles.

It was announced at the Chamber of Commerce yesterday that 3500 postal cards have been sent out to members and prominent Southern Californians, inviting them to attend the complimentary membership smoker at Shrine Auditorium.

RAILROADS IN GERMANY.

Fine Discipline Because Employees Are All Ex-Army Men.

It is well known that practically all of the railway employees of Prussia have served in the army. When they enter the railway ranks from the army certain credits are allowed for their military service, and certain positions are reserved for army men. This military experience shows its influence on their deportment and discipline in railway service. There is a noticeable orderliness and precision about everything connected with German railways. In respect for authority and strict observance of the rules the German railway employee has no superior.

The traveler will not fail to notice the red capped station master standing at attention on the station platform as the train passes through each station. He will also find the senior signalman, gatemen and other employees connected with the train service always in evidence, standing like sentries as the train passes. The operating official, while riding over the line, can thus take a census of all employees in positions of responsibility. When he alights at a station his rank is at once recognized. The station master immediately salutes and gives a verbal report of the situation at his station. If the official goes into a signal tower the signalman in charge salutes and reports. If he goes into an engine house the foreman salutes and gives a brief report of the work in progress.—Railway Age Gazette.

FORKS OF TREES.

They Stay Where They Develop and Never Grow Any Higher.

Some people through careless observation believe that the fork of a forest tree will gradually grow higher from the ground. If they would investigate it would be found that the forks and "heads" of fruit trees are at exactly the same point where they were when first noted.

The state forester in inspecting locust and catalpa groves throughout the state has found owners who have not removed one part of the fork of those trees that have formed forks below the fencepost length, believing that in years the fork would grow up and a fencepost could be cut below the fork. This erroneous belief is the cause of so much of the delay and neglect of pruning in early life of street and roadside trees.

It should be remembered that the base of a fork or a branch of a tree will always remain at the same distance above the ground. The side branches of some trees, such as the elm, usually continue to grow upward, while those of other trees, such as the maples, incline upward when young, and as the tree grows older the weight of the branches gradually brings it to the horizontal. The latter often makes the removal of large branches necessary, which not only spoils the symmetry of the tree, but usually starts decay, which soon kills the tree.—Indiana Farmer.

MOST GORGEOUS OF HOMES FOR HUNTINGTON HONEYMOON

Los Angeles Tribune: To Oak Knoll, that wonderful home in the Sierra Madre foothills, the beauties of which language does not serve to describe, Henry E. Huntington will bring his bride, who until yesterday was Mrs. Collis P. Huntington.

The great million-dollar mansion with its acres of gardens glorious with flowers and arboreal delights, ever is ready for its master, and soon it is expected there will be domiciled within it the new mistress. From every corner of the earth have been brought treasures in wood, metal, stone, glass and textiles to the construction of Oak Knoll. Within its walls are housed the masterpieces of painters, sculptors, weavers and molders whose names are great in the world of art.

Without, rolling hillside and meadow flat were transformed by master landscape engineers and skillful gardeners into gardens of paradise-like beauty. All this was done, until today the fame of Oak Knoll is second to that of none of the famed estates of the sunny Southland.

It is to this that the new Mrs. Henry E. Huntington will come as mistress.

Family is Surprised
Yesterday the city buzzed with comment as the news of the marriage in Paris spread. Not a soul, not even among the members of the Huntington family, had been taken into the

Sporting Briefs of the Week

[By Hal Sheridan]

NEW YORK, July 16.—It came. The Phillies cracked, blew up, flew to pieces and generally scattered themselves over the landscape and the Giants took the lead in the National League race. All members of the I-told-you-so club are therefore respectfully invited to take a seventh inning stretch and say it. The law allows it and the court awards it. The right of saying "I told you so" is one thing that doesn't figure in the high cost of living, and it is recommended as a fine substitute for porterhouse steaks after a full meal of chicken and corn fritters and any trimmings that may be thought of.

But to get back to the subject of baseball instead of clubs, courts and things to eat, as June faded into July so did Charlie Doolin's Phillies fade as the leaders in President Lynch's obstacle race for the National League pennant. Up to July 4 the Phillies lost ten straight games. And they lost four of them to the Giants in the series in which they should have shown their real class. The Giants simply breezed by while the Phillies floundered and rolled and finally were completely swamped.

"And why was this?" asked someone, looking first to the right and then to the left.

"It was simply a case of riding out a mount in the first furlong, when there were about five to go," we reply, taking one step forward, and assuming an attitude of much wisdom.

Doolin took his team from the stable full of hope and with good prospects. The whip was applied from the start, and off to a good start the Phillies pounded away in the lead. It wasn't such a rough fight right at the start, for the Giants were crowded to the outside of the track and struck rough going near the outer rail. Then they began to recover and Seaton and Alexander, Doolin's star pitchers, were worked to the limit in order to quell the heavy onslaught of their immediate pursuers. From lack marked as a remarkable ball team to keep the pace considering the strain under which they would be working. The Giants have moved deliberately, surely and with telling effect and have a lot left for a driving finish if it should be necessary. Manager McGraw does not fear the Phillies in the least. He says if his team is threatened at all it will be by the Cubs. However, Marquand and Mathewson are looking up their list of shoots not to lose to Frank Baker and those planning to walk cross-country to witness the world's series are starting toward New York or Connie Mack's ball park in Philadelphia.

If Harry Payne Whitney carries out his threat to ship Whisk Broom, the sensational son of Broomstick, to Europe, the real class that has been shown during the summer racing season will be lost to the country. And the handicappers may be responsible for driving Whisk Broom away, if he goes. After winning the Brooklyn handicap, Whisk Broom carried 133 pounds in the revival of the Suburban and won his race, establishing a new record for the mile and a quarter of two minutes flat. For the Excelsior handicap, the big race of the Metropolitan Jockey Club's meeting he was assigned 142 pounds. The distance for this race is a mile and a sixteenth. The attempt to revive racing in New York has met with some success, and even better things are expected next year. The opening at Belmont Park Memorial Day, put the association in good financial shape from the start.

ANNOUNCEMENT

—This is to announce that Mr. O. C. Auer, former manager of the Orange County Employment Agency and Real Estate, is no longer connected with that firm. All who have listed real estate with him will receive good attention from Mr. J. C. Morales.

Took Him Down.

A supercilious lawyer, cross examining a young woman whose testimony was likely to result unfavorably to his client, inquired, "You are married, I believe?"

"No, sir."
"Oh—only about to be married?"
"No, sir."
"Only wish to be?"
"Really, I don't know. Would you advise such a step?"
"Oh, certainly! I am a married man myself."

"Is it possible? I never should have thought it. Is your wife deaf or blind?"—St. Louis Republic.

Didn't Have to Lean.

Perhaps one of the best stories which Lady Dorothy Nevill has told about Dismal is that concerning the occasion when a photographer asked him to pose for a photograph leaning on a chair. This at once aroused the indignation of Mrs. Dismal. "I soon settled that," she said afterward to Lady Dorothy when relating the incident, "for I said, 'Dizzy has always stood alone, and he shall continue to do so.'"

A Good Student.

MISS PANKHURST HURLS HOT BROADSIDE AT LLOYD-GEORGE

Exiled Suffragette Tears Holes in Minister's Anti-Suffrage Argument— Woman's High Courage Will Save Movement

LONDON, July 17.—When Lloyd-George penned a magazine article recently, attacking militancy with his usual limousine vocabulary and attributing the failure of the woman suffrage movement in England solely to the "organized lunacy" of the women's Social and Political Union, he probably figured that he would draw some fire. If so, he guessed right. It is by such men that we are governed. "The practitioners of militancy," says Lloyd-George, "seem to think that they can terrorize and play-pick parliament into giving them the vote." Well, the suffragettes not only "think" they know that parliament can be terrorized in the form of a broad-side from Paris. Writing from her place of temporary exile, the daughter of the suffragette leader thus replies to the Chancellor of the Exchequer: "The Nationalists (by their votes in the House of Commons) are terrorizing parliament into proceeding with the Home Rule bill. Terrorism is, in fact, the only argument that has won the day. Understand that, Mr. Lloyd-George. It is well aware of that fact as many of his speeches in his earlier career give proof. He was who said 'The kingdom of politics is like the kingdom of heaven: it suffereth violence and the violent take it by force.'"

Then he says, "Until they learn something of the people they are dealing with their cause, as far as the House of Commons is concerned, is simply and utterly damned." That is really funny. The suffragettes, he assures Mr. Lloyd-George, have nothing more to learn about members of parliament. They know these gentlemen only too well, and militancy is the result of that knowledge. "We are a flabby lot," one member of parliament was once honest enough to say of himself and his colleagues. A flabby lot indeed, and unprincipled, and treacherous. If there are any in the House of Commons who do not deserve to be so described, they have only to try to exculpate themselves—they have only to do something to win a better reputation.

Mr. Lloyd-George incriminates himself and the government in the following most significant words: "If they had accepted Mr. Asquith's pledge of two years ago, and helped him for it and helped him to redeem it, woman suffrage would by now be an accomplished fact." What is this but an admission that the government was jointly responsible for the torpedoing of the woman's amendment to the franchise reform bill? This torpedoing was, by Mr. Lloyd-George's own showing, not a surprise to the government and not an act of which they had no previous knowledge. It was the result of an arrangement between the government and the Speaker. If Mr. Lloyd-George does not mean that, what does he mean? Of course, the woman's amendments would have been defeated, because the Nationalists and subversive party men were ready to defeat them, but the division lists would have been an awkward one and so the government, in collusion with the Speaker, torpedoed the amendments. They cannot now deny that, in view of what Mr. Lloyd-George has said.

Mr. Lloyd-George concludes his article by saying: "Only a new movement altogether can now bring women to the goal of political emancipation, and it will have to be a sane, hard-headed, practical movement as full of liveliness as you please, but absolutely divorced from stones, bombs and torches." We know not how the anti-militant suffragists will like the accusation here implied that they are neither sane, hard-headed, practical nor lively. As for the militants, they treat his advice and criticism with the contempt they merit. Sane, indeed! The militants are far too sane to be deluded by Lloyd-Georgean fallacies. Hard-headed! The militants are too hard-headed to follow this will-o'-the-wisp of a man, Mr. Lloyd-George. The militants are a great deal too practical to listen to fairy tales on the making of omelettes without breaking eggs.

Lively, forsooth! Yes, the militants are lively, because they recognize that a merry heart and a sense of humor are needed to enable them to hold their own against the savagery of Mr. Lloyd-George's government.

Yet it is not by mere common sense and cheerful spirit—valuable things as these are—that the great cause can be carried to victory.

"Utterly damned is the woman's cause," says Mr. Lloyd-George. Utterly damned indeed, were it not for the high courage and martial virtues of women whose very names some men are not worthy to speak. Utterly damned this cause of ours and not to be redeemed except by the love that is stronger than death and steel, women to meet death in the name of liberty.

EMERSON'S FAILING MEMORY.

He Was Conscious of It, but His Amiability Never Wavered.

I had as a fellow guest a man who had long been intimate with Emerson and whom the poet was very glad to see. Talking with him after tea in the library, Emerson said: "I want to tell you about a friend in Germany. His name I cannot remember, and he moved to recall it. 'This friend with whom we have taken tea tonight, whose name also I cannot remember'—here again came a distressed look at the failure of his faculty. 'I cannot remember his name either, but he can tell you of this German friend whose name I have also forgotten.'"

It was a sorrow to see the breaking down of a great spirit and his agitation as he was conscious of his waning power. And yet so far as I could see, it was only the memory that was going. The intellectual strength was still apparent and the amiability of his spirit was perhaps even more manifest than in the years when he was in the full possession of his self.

This came out in little things. He was overcautious at the table lest the hospitality should come short, troubled about the supply of butter and apple sauce, and soon after I saw him on his knees on the hearth taking care that the fire should catch the wood to alight the evening coals that was gathering in the room. From "The Last Leaf," by J. K. Hooper.

UNCONSCIOUS OF FAME.

Grote, the Famous Historian, Was a Man of Great Simplicity.

George Grote, the famous author of the "History of Greece," long a best-seller on that subject, was a man of great simplicity and was wholly unconscious of his own celebrity. Several anecdotes illustrative of this fact are given in "Some Famous Women of Wit and Beauty," one of whom is Mrs. Grote.

While Mr. Grote was walking in the park he would perhaps notice that one or two persons looked at him with some attention. He would at once turn to his wife in alarm.

"Have I got any dirt on my face, Harriet? Is there anything the matter with my hat?" and he would clutch his headgear with both hands. "Why are those people looking at me?"

Mrs. Grote's proud answer was, "Because you are George Grote, that's all!"

Once when he was on a visit to Cambridge Grote wished to see the professor of natural history, but was told that the professor was so busy dissecting something that he could not be interrupted. "Strong man, strong power, powerful light, shirt sleeves up, cannot be bothered with anybody." The modest historian would have retired, but his wife persisted that it was Mr. Grote who wished to see the professor.

"What?" he cried. "Mr. Grote? Give me my coat. I must wash my hands." In a minute he had transformed himself and would not let them go for two hours.

Animals Don't Need Eyes.

Animals do not depend upon their eyesight in the same way as human beings. Cats and dogs could get along very well without eyes. A cat can find her way with the aid of her whiskers. These are the same width as her body and connected with nerves which cause her to feel the slightest touch.

Dogs can be entirely guided by their sense of smell. Blind dogs have been known to scent and find their way to the most inaccessible places. Their hearing is also preternaturally sharp.

Rats can see very little and depend chiefly upon their noses, muscles, touch and hearing. In the case of most animals the senses of smell and touch are more highly developed than that of sight, and they do not require to depend upon their sight nearly as much as do human beings in regard to safety.—London Globe.

His Willing Tribute.

We shall be very glad to have one from you. Would you mind telling me in a few words how you came to insure with us?"

"Not at all, sir. Your agent was hounding me nearly to death. For six weeks he had made my life a burden. I gave him my application for life insurance just to get rid of him."—Chicago Tribune.

THEY FOUND THOSE ERRORS ALL RIGHT

Mrs. James Clark, 501 Orange Avenue, Santa Ana, Wins Prize

The Register got into trouble when it offered a prize of $1.00 to the first person pointing out three errors in the Crookshank-Beatty advertisement in Tuesday's Register.

Letters and notes began pouring into the office almost before the last of the edition was off the press, and the stream continued until after noon today.

Most of the people found at least two of the errors, and many found all three of them. Some found consequential errors of which neither this office nor Mr. Beatty had any knowledge. Others found "errors" that were not errors at all.

The first correct report received was from Mrs. James Clark, 501 Orange Avenue, Santa Ana.

There were really four errors instead of three in the Crookshank-Beatty advertisement, as it appeared in Tuesday's Register, as follows:

Fifty cent (50c) hose were offered at 28c per yard instead of per pair. Autumn & Lotus lawns offered at 35c per yard were listed as "regular" at 1c the yard instead of 5c.

The word "spoilens" was used instead of poplins.

"Sherman" instead of Sheerman wool skirts were offered at one-fourth off.

Of course, as our announcement referred to only three errors most people looked for only three; so we have counted as correct all reports which pointed out any three of the above four errors.

Following is a list of those giving correct reports:

Mrs. James Clark, 501 Orange Avenue, Santa Ana.

Warren C. Mansur, 129 East Washington Avenue, Santa Ana.

Mrs. Neal Beatty, Santa Ana.

Mrs. D. E. Lohbs, Garden Grove.

Maurine E. Baker, 829 West Fourth Street, Santa Ana.

Grace L. Cargay, 306 South Flower Street, Santa Ana.

Mrs. W. D. Moore, 1010 Riverine Avenue, Santa Ana.

Nina Fowler, 709 Mortimer Street, Santa Ana.

Mrs. R. C. Peterson, 217 Orange Avenue, Santa Ana.

Mrs. Chas. S. Osborn, 606 Cypress Avenue, Santa Ana.

Mildred Severance, 629 East Pine Street, Santa Ana.

Chester Delmet, R. D. 2, Orange.

Alice Wilkes, R. D. 1, Santa Ana.

TRICKY ANIMALS.

Some Are Simply Fakers, While Others Are Real Criminals.

"There are crooks among animals, just as among men," said a nature student. "Take, for example, the horse. A horse looks very noble, very honest, eh? Yet time and again a horse will feign lameness in one leg or the other because he knows that when he lame his boss will let him loaf."

"One responsible writer tells about a chimpanzee that they once fed on cake and wine when he had a cold. The rascal fakes up a bad cough in the hope of getting more wine and cake."

"Many birds are tricky and some are notorious thieves, particularly the raven and the crow. But the cuckoo is the worst. The cuckoo is too tightly a lady to be willing to sit in a nest and hatch out eggs, so she lays in the nests of other birds, one here and one there, and, by love, to complete the deception she abstracts an egg from the nest she lays in so that the addition of her own egg won't be noticed."

"A criminal—not a common crook—is the Australian parrot. Once a vegetarian, this fool bird now fights on a sheep's back end, standing where the sheep cannot reach him, he hucks his way down to the liver, which he eats. Sheep murdered by parrots for the liver constitute one of the grave losses of Australian farming."—New York Tribune.

FOREIGN BORN WOMEN.

How They May Become Naturalized, Married or Single.

A foreign born unmarried woman may become a citizen by being naturalized. To do this she must be twenty-one years of age and have lived five years in this country, one full year of which has been lived in the state in which she makes her application. Or she can marry a man who is a citizen, for the wife's citizenship follows the husband, and she continues to retain her citizenship if she continues to reside in the United States, unless she renounces the sovereignty of the United States.

A foreign born woman living in the United States whose husband is a foreigner, who refuses to become naturalized, cannot become a citizen unless separated from him by divorce or death.

A native born woman who marries a foreigner loses her citizenship during the time of the married relation, but upon the death of her husband or divorce from him she may resume her citizenship by registering, within one year with the American consul in the country of her residence a declaration that she desires to do so, or she may resume it by returning to the United States to reside.—New York Post.

RENEWED WAR ON SWEET WINE TAX

California Delegation Hopes to Kill Provision on Floor of the Senate

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Renewed efforts to defeat the Pomerene amendment to the tariff bill, under which a tax of $1.10 a gallon is laid on the sweet wine industry, will be made by a strong delegation from California, including M. F. Tarney of Fresno, G. E. Strong, Mayor of Los Angeles, and James A. Harbottle of Los Angeles, and B. R. Kittredge, president of the California Wine Association.

The Pomerene amendment, as finally framed by the Senate Democratic caucus, contains a "joker" which directly discriminates in favor of artificial or "spurious" wines and against the pure grape product. In the section relating to pure sweet wines, a tax of $1.10 a gallon is placed on wine spirits, grape brandy or pure neutral alcohol used in preserving the wine.

In the section taxing artificial or "spurious" wines 25 cents a gallon, "pure neutral alcohol" is specifically exempted from tax of any kind. The manufacturers of pure sweet wines claim that this exemption was slipped into the bill within the last two days in a flagrant attempt to discriminate in favor of the Ohio makers of artificial wines. Pure neutral alcohol includes corn or grain brandy and it is bitterly complained that if this fortifier is to be taxed when used to pure wines it should also be taxed when used to produce what is not wine at all but a mixture of chemicals.

As the Democratic tariff bill will be reported out Friday it is not expected that the Pomerene amendment can be headed off before the bill is taken up in the Senate, but a determined effort will be made to defeat it on the floor or when the bill reaches conference.

Not Feeling Just Right? Read This!

Do not think that Mr. Jack Malton of Copperopolis, Calif., would make this statement, if it were not absolutely true. He says: "I thought I would have to sell my business, for I could hardly stand on my feet and when sitting down could hardly arise on account of pain in my kidneys. I tried three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and they entirely cured me, and I have had no kidney trouble since." Foley Kidney Pills will help any case of kidney or bladder disease not beyond the reach of medicine. Rowley Drug Co. and White Cross Drug Co.—Advertisement.

SEATTLE CELEBRATES "GOLDEN POTLACH"

SEATTLE, Wash., July 17.—With Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, Governor Ernest Lister of Washington, and many distinguished men and army and navy officials in the reviewing stand, the civic parade in which 5,000 marched, was held here today in connection with the Golden Potlach celebration.

Coast artillery and infantry of the regular army, sailors and marines, the state national guard, the Grand Army of the Republic, Spanish War Veterans and gaily uniformed detachments of fraternal and civic organizations were in the line of march. Eight battleships, four submarines and four torpedo boats anchored in the harbor disgorged their uniformed crews to add to the splendor of the impressive pageant.

WOMEN OF INDIA THREATEN MILITANCY

CALCUTTA, July 17.—Officials admitted here today that they have taken steps to prevent any possible demonstration of militancy by the Hindu and Mohammedan women of Calcutta. Tiring of perpetual confinement in the "zenana" or closed quarters set apart for their use, the females of scores of high caste Indian households recently got up a petition asking that a park or public square be set apart for their use. The petition bore 300 signatures. A committee of the Municipal Commission favored the plan on the condition that the place be surrounded by a high fence and that a heavy police guard protect the inmates from prying male eyes. The commission, however, vetoed the project on the grounds that to grant what the women want might encourage them to make "similar demands to the women of other countries." Immediately the ruling of the commission was made known, the 300 women threatened to escape from their households and walk in public with veils off. The authorities, horrified at the plan, have placed special guards in the thickly populated districts and in the vicinity of the houses where the would-be militancy is quartered.

GREAT JEWEL ROBBERY

LONDON, July 17.—The theft of a pearl necklace valued at $625,000 was reported to the Scotland Yard authorities today. The pearls are alleged to have been stolen during transit by post from Paris to a dealer in London. The robbery was discovered in London yesterday when the registered packet was opened. The case contained only pieces of sugar.

THE LATEST FASHION NOTE

It is well known that the latest fashion note is to powder the shoes before putting them on. Many people sprinkle the famous talcote powder. Allen's Foot-Ease into the shoes, and find that it saves its feet ten times over in keeping holes from forming as well as lessening friction and consequent smarting and aching of the feet.

CAGE SUBMARINE PLANT IN TROUBLE

Los Angeles Examiner: The plant of the Los Angeles Submarine Boat Company at Long Beach, where was built the Cage submarine boat which recently succeeded in establishing a world's record for submergence by remaining under water for thirty-six hours, was placed under guard by a deputy sheriff last night, the machinery and boat having been attached for debt at the instigation of the Press Publishing Company of Long Beach, for an alleged advertising debt of $475.64.

The issuing of this attachment, which has completely tied up the works, was followed yesterday by the filing of a suit in the superior court by Attorney R. H. Jackson of Long Beach, who is said to be acting on behalf of several of the employees of the company. Other suits for lesser amounts have been brought in the Long Beach Justices' courts.

John M. Cage, the inventor of the submarine, is said to have requested the deputy sheriff yesterday to allow his men to proceed with their work, pending the settlement of the attachment suits, but without success, an appeal to Sheriff Hammel resulting in a decision that the attachment means the closing down of the plant until the attachment is withdrawn.

It was reported that an effort was made last night by the officers and directors of the company to secure the money to liquidate all outstanding claims. Neither Cage nor any of the officers of the company could be located last night, though a meeting for today had been called, when the securing of funds to continue the work and to increase the capital stock, from $100,000 to $1,000,000 will probably be voted on by the stockholders.

TO INSTALL FLAGMEN ON VENICE P. E. LINE

LOS ANGELES, July 17.—Paul Shoup, president of the Pacific Electric Railway, yesterday announced that he had given instructions for a reorganization of the local system insofar as the safety of the public was concerned. Shoup's orders call for the installation of twelve miles of the automatic block system and the establishment of four new interlocking plants which it is estimated, will cost the company about $500,000.

Shoup admitted that the Vineyard accident of last Sunday spurred him to hastening the installation of the improvements and that he had ordered that the manual block system be forthwith installed on the line between Vineyard and Venice. This means that eight stations will be located between these two places, which covers a distance of nine miles, and that eight additional flagmen will be placed on the job. These men will be removed as soon as the automatic system shall have been installed.
